The history of the Belgian gambling market dates back much earlier than you could expect. The first gambling game (that was obviously the card game) appeared in Belgium in the far 1300 and became the first known gambling game in Europe. A hundred years later, in 1400, the Belgians started to hold the first lotteries. With the lapse of times, they didn't become less interested in gambling so now we have a lot of the Belgium based online casinos as well as the land-based EUR casinos across the country. What else you need to know about this slot machine is that only the highest winning per spin is paid. All the combinations must start from the leftmost reel and be at least three symbols long. There is no need to explain that longer combinations bring higher winnings and the maximum win of 2500 is given for 5 pictures of a red button.
