The history of the Liechtenstein approved online casinos hasn't come to its happy end yet. In 2016, the government decided to amend the gambling laws and allow the top online casinos for Liechtensteiner players to apply for the license and legally operate in the country. Since then, there was no information about the best online casinos for Liechtensteiners being issued a license and the international online casinos accepting Liechtenstein players continue operating in the "gray area". But the approval of the legislation is already a good thing and we may expect for the Liechtensteiner internet casino to be finally opened. Live dealer poker is like having a FaceTime or Skype chat, it is a live stream of the game where the gambler interacts live with the dealer. The dealer will work from behind a professional poker table with betting areas while handling a real deck. In some Australian live dealer casinos, the gambler is able to have a conversation with the dealer via live chat and they then respond in real time. Live dealer poker offers the same kind of anticipation one would experience in a land-based casino. The gambler can see the dealer's every action.
